

27 As far as I remember

As far as I remember
My thoughts were always with you
You shall read it in my eyes
You know who I am, in depth
I don't waste my words with you
We have connected our minds

You live in the darkness of my nights
You stand in the brightness of my days

You're the keystone on my way
You are the female wisdom
I'm fortunate to share your life
You smooth all my concerns
You make me more visible
I trust you - you are true

You live in the darkness of my nights
You stand in the brightness of my days

You are the one I wanted
You are the one I need
I am yours, you are mine
What I will really like to do
Is to fly away with you
Until our journey is over

You live in the darkness of my nights
You stand in the brightness of my days...
