

Charlie B Good... Sympathique cet anglais vivant à Paris.
Il joue (bien !) de plusieurs instruments et compose de petits bijoux. Celui-ci est mon préféré. Du folk au Blues il a une belle palette de possibilités... Stylé

Calling me

I heard you calling me
As I will swept away
Deeper into the sea
In love, I missed it's treachery;
Swimming free
And in one breath a twist of fate made history
Mother nature took me in
She swept me under then
I Knew this was my end
My whole life flashed in front of me,
So suddenly
And sinking down I knew I still could hear your scream!

I hear you calling me
There's nothing I can do
I hear you calling me
To answer back to you

And now you're loosing sleep
With memories, you spend all night playing hide and seek Replaying how it should've been
And could've been
If only there were amen's that you could've seen
Back in that room again
You hope to reach me through a medium but there's No use I can't reply to this lovers cry oh! How I wish I just could see you
One more time to say goodbye!

I hear you calling me
There's nothing I can do
I hear you calling me
To answer back to you
