

Ray la montagne est un peu torturé mais il écrit très bien. Du très bon folk. Une voix chaude et un peu cassée. Guitare et harmonica. Pas besoin d'autres choses

Ray la montagne

A Falling Through Chords

Laid the blessings on the ground-
Softening of sound
Draws us close again
Stay, stay and watch the clothes
Till they seize to close
Like empty promises

Why Why did you go, Why did you go away
Why Why did you go, Why did you go away

There's nothing I can say nothing I can do
Bring you back again
This whole life I know is true
Its all fallen through and so I reach for you

Why Why did you go, Why did you go away
Why Why did you go, Why did you go away

Don't you care it may seem unfair
Still the things you ought to borrow

Don't you find it might seem unkind?
By the way it drowned in sorrow

Why Why did you go, Why did you go away
Why Why did you go, Why did you go away
