

As I diasappear

Andy Scisco

I'm sleeping but I'm walking back
My feet have memorized the track below me now
I bow my head into the dark
And count my paces through the park
On my way now

And I know that I feel like someone else
That I can hardly recognize myself
And the lines in my hands are not so clear
As I disappear

Close into the trees I keep
As silently the neighbors sleep around me now
It's just a half a block away
How many footsteps can you pay on your way now ?

And I know that I feel like someone else
That I can hardly recognize myself
And the lines in my hands are not so clear
As I disappear
As I disappear
As I disappear

It burns like an ember on the ground
And there is no one else around
As I disappear
As I disappear
As I disappear

Une jolie ballade folk d'un jeune compositeur Italo Suédois; Beaucoup de talent; Beaux arrangements
J'aime beaucoup cette mélodie entendue il y a quelques années en première partie d'un concert de De Palmas; Guitare acoustique (Cm#, Sol#, la, mi, Si Cm#...);
